

-For this same measure, the AFCARS element indicated for calculation use is #21, the date of most recent removal; however in the proposed indicators it states that only the first episode (if a child has multiple) will be selected. This may just be a typo or miscommunication, can there be clarification regarding this standard?